Course Description

The objective of this course is to provide students with a basic understanding of the general principles of business finance: capital investment, financing, capital structure and related areas including the basics of valuation.

* FINC 301 is a terminal course. If you have any desire to major or minor in FINC you must take FINC 334 in Chicago.***

Learning Outcomes

On completion of the course students should be able to:

- Apply time value of money and risk-return concepts to make financial decisions
- Value financial and physical assets
- Analyze appropriate capital budgets
- Evaluate dividend policies

Required Text / Materials

Essentials of Corporate Finance, Ross, Westerfield and Jordan – 10th Edition

Assigned readings posted on Sakai

Attendance Policy

In accordance with the Rome Center mission to promote a higher level of academic rigor, and in compliance with full-time student visa status, all courses adhere to the following attendance policy.

Prompt attendance, preparation and active participation in course discussions are expected from every student and synonymous with academic success. Attendance is mandatory at every class meeting for each course. Lateness or leaving class early will impact the course grade at the professor's discretion. All absences, including medical absences, will be treated the same, unless they are documented long-term conditions or emergencies. Such situations will be evaluated case-by-case by the Academic Affairs office.

Twice-a-week classes:

- After 2 absences, a 2% final grade reduction will be applied for each missed class.
- Missing 6 classes or more will result in an automatic failure (F).
