Biographical History

Maureen Warren received an MFA from the University of Illinois, a BFA from The School of the Art Institute of Chicago and studied at the Academies of Fine Art in Krakow and Warsaw, Poland as a Fulbright Scholar. Warren's work contrasts Eastern and Western painting traditions juxtaposing the flatness and stillness of Eastern art with the sense of movement in Western art. Her art is also influenced by Japanese No and Kabuki theater as well as the Japanese geisha figure.

Warren's awards include a Professional Artist in Residence, OxBow, MI, Education for Global Involvement Grant, Cuernavaca, MX, Ragdale Foundation Residency, IL, Virginia Center for the Creative Arts Residency, VA, Community Arts Assistance Grant, IL.

Her exhibitions include Holland Area Arts Council, MI, Koehnline Museum of Art, IL, Chicago Cultural Center, IL, O'Hare International Airport, IL, Fort Wayne Museum of Art, IN, Georgetown University Gallery, Washington, DC, Castle Gallery, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, DC, Artemisia Gallery, IL, SACI Gallery, Florence, Italy, Clocktower Gallery, NY, Morpeth Gallery, NJ, Dom Polonii Gallery, Krakow, Poland.
